All groomed trails are considered multi-use trails. Please use common-sense self-control.

Washington State Law Prohibits:

1. Leaving the scene of a skidding accident without assistance, notifying authorities, or clearly identifying yourself;
2. Staying in a closed area and/or designing a closed lane;
3. Interfering with the safe operation of a lift;
4. Loading or unloading a lift at other than designated areas;
5. Crossing the track or a surface or other area designed for crossing;
6. Throwing or dropping any object from a lift, or littering a ski slope;
7. Failing to follow oral or verbal instructions of lift use;
8. Skiing near towns, equipment, vehicles, lift towers and other obstacles

YOUR SKIING AND HIDING PRIVILEGES MAY BE REVOKED WITHOUT REASON FOR ANY CONFLICT VIOLATING THE ABOVE LIST OF CONDUCT. Your Responsibility Code, WIA State Law, or any conduct that is illegal or dangerous.

Excerpts from Washington State Law

Your Responsibility Code.

1. Always stay in control
2. People ahead of you have the right away
3. Stop in a safe place for you and others
4. When starting downhill or merging, look uphill and yield.
5. Use devices to help prevent runaway equipment
6. Observe signs and warnings, and keep off closed trails.
7. Know how to use the lifts safely

KNOW THE CODE. It's your responsibility. This is partial list, the safety conscience. Officially endorsed by the National Ski Area Association, National Ski Patrol, Professional Ski Instructors of America and the American Association of Snowboard Instructors.

Your Responsibility Code... Read It!
Skiing/snowboarding can be enjoyed in many ways. At ski areas you may see people using alpine, snowboard, telemark, cross-country or other specialized equipment, such as that used by disabled or other skiers. Regardless of how you choose to enjoy the slopes, always show courtesy to others and be aware that there are elements of risk in skiing/snowboarding that cannot be reduced. Observe the code listed below and share with other skiers/snowboarders your responsibility for a great mountain experience.

Ski With Care: Read the information. Failure to use judgement or responsibility can result in loss of snowboarding. Snowmaking and ski area maintenance procedures are in operation on open ski or snowboard. Such equipment
