EXPECT THE UNEXPECTED!

Trail and slope conditions vary constantly with weather changes and skier use. Be aware of changing conditions. Obey all advisory signs. Ski with care through a snowmaking area and stay out of the way of snow vehicles.

SKI AREA BOUNDARIES

The Ski Area Boundary is defined by the use of signs and/or rope lines. For your own safety, ski within the designated area. Red Lodge Mountain is not responsible for any avalanche control or rescues beyond this boundary; nor are areas outside the designated boundaries patrolled. If you choose to go beyond these boundaries, you expose yourself to uncontrolled avalanche dangers and wild, unfamiliar terrain. Any rescues beyond the ski area boundary will be made through the Carbon County Sheriff's Department (406) 446-1234 and you will be charged for the rescue. Certain slopes or areas within the ski area boundaries may be closed from time to time. Please respect these closures for your own safety. Failure to do so will result in the loss of pass or lift ticket.

NOTICE

"The purchaser and user of a lift ticket assumes and understands that skiing is a hazardous sport. Bare spots, variations in snow, ice and terrain along with bumps, moguls, stumps, forest growth, debris, rocks and many other hazards or obstacles exist within this ski area. In using the ticket and skiing at this area, such dangers are recognized and accepted whether they are marked or unmarked. The skier realizes that falls and collisions do occur and may cause severe and permanent injury." As outlined in the Montana Skier Responsibility Act, the skier accepts the risks inherent in the sport of skiing and the legal responsibilities for skiing under control at all times.

MONTANA SKIER RESPONSIBILITY ACT

Montana State Law Section 23-2-736, MCA
Duties of a Skier

(1) A skier has the duty to ski at all times in a manner that avoids injury to the skier and others and to be aware of the inherent dangers and risks of skiing.

(2) A skier:

(a) shall know the range of the skier's ability and safely ski within the limits of that ability and the skier's equipment so as to negotiate any section of terrain or ski slope and trail safely and without injury or damage. A skier shall know that the skier's ability may vary because of ski slope and trail changes caused by weather, grooming changes, or skier use.

(b) shall maintain control of speed and course so as to prevent injury to the skier or others;

(c) shall abide by the requirements of the skier responsibility code that is published by the national ski areas association and that is posted as provided in 23-2-733;

(d) shall obey all posted or other warnings and instructions of the ski area operator; and

(e) shall read the ski area trail map and must be aware of its contents.

(3) A person may not:

(a) place an object in the ski area or on the uphill track of a passenger ropeway that may cause a passenger or skier to fall;

(b) cross the track of a passenger ropeway except at a designated and approved point; or

(c) if involved in a skiing accident, depart from the scene of the accident without:

(i) leaving personal identification; or

(ii) notifying the proper authorities and obtaining assistance when the person knows that a person involved in the accident is in need of medical or other assistance.

(4) A skier shall accept all legal responsibility for injury or damage of any kind to the extent that the injury or damage results from inherent dangers and risks of skiing. Nothing in this part may be construed to limit a skier's right to hold another skier legally accountable for damages caused by the other skier.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITY CODE

These are elements of risk that common sense and personal awareness can help reduce.

- Stay in control.
- People ahead have the right of way.
- Stop in a safe place for you and others.
- When starting downhill or merging, look uphill and yield.
- Use devices to help prevent runaway equipment.
- Observe signs and warnings, and keep off closed trails.
- Know how to use the lifts safely.
