THE BACKYARD

Always stay in control and be able to stop or avoid other people or objects.

People ahead of you have the right of way. It is your responsibility to avoid them.

You must yield to where you obstruct a trail, or are not visible from above.

Whenever starting downhill or merging into a trail, look uphill and yield to others.

Always use proper technique to help prevent runaway equipment.

Observe all posted signs and warnings. Keep off closed trails and out of bounds areas.

Prior to using any lift, you must have the knowledge and ability to load, ride and unload safely.

Notice: skiers and riders should be advised that a Green Circle, Blue Square or Black Diamond trail at Crystal Mountain is not necessarily the same as a similarly rated trail at another area. This system is a relative system that is valid only at Crystal Mountain. Skiers and riders should work their way up, beginning with the easiest trails to master what their ability level may be, until they are familiar with the trails at Crystal Mountain.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITY CODE: Crystal Mountain is committed to promoting slope safety. In addition to those using traditional alpine ski equipment, others on the slopes include snowboarders, telemark skiers or cross-country skiers. Skiers with disabilities, skiers with specialized equipment and others. Always share courtesy to others and be aware that there are elements of risk in skiing and snowboarding.

that common sense and personal awareness can help reduce. Know your ability level and stay within it. Observe Your Responsibility Code and share with others on the slopes the responsibility for a great snowsports experience.

FREESTYLE TERRAIN AREAS: are designated with an orange oval and may contain jumps, hills, ramps, banks, fun boxes, jibs, rails, hollows, quarterpipes, inverts, barrels and other constructed or natural terrain features. Please be aware. Freestyle Terrain, you are responsible for maneuvering yourself with Freestyle Terrain and obeying all instructions, warnings and signs. Freestyle skills require mastering control on the ground and in the air. Freestyle Terrain requires you to be the risk of serious injury or death. Inverted aerials increase your risk of injury and are not recommended. You assume the risk.

MAKE A PLAN: Every time you use Freestyle Terrain, make a plan for each feature you want to try. Your speed, approach and takeoff will directly affect your maneuver and landing.

LOOK BEFORE YOU LEAP: Before getting into Freestyle Terrain observe all signage and warnings. Scoop around the jump first, not over them. Use your first run as a warm up run and to familiarize yourself with the terrain. Be aware that the features change constantly due to weather, age, growing and time of day. Do not jump blindly and use a topper when necessary.

EASY STYLE IT: Know your limits and ski/climb within your ability level. Look for small progression points or features to begin with and work your way up. Freestyle skills require maintaining control on the ground and in the air. Do not attempt any features unless you have sufficient ability and experience to do so safely.

RESPECT GETS RESPECT: Respect the terrain and others. One person on a feature at a time. Watch your turn and call your start. Always clear the landing area quickly. Respect all signs and stay off closed terrain and features.

AERIAL CHDNE POLICY: Out of concern for guests, employees and resort property, Crystal Mountain Resort prohibits the operation of unmanned aerial systems, or aerial drones by the general public.
