SCHLICK 2000 IN SUMMER

ALPINE ADVENTURE FOR THE ENTIRE FAMILY ...

let yourself be carried away ...

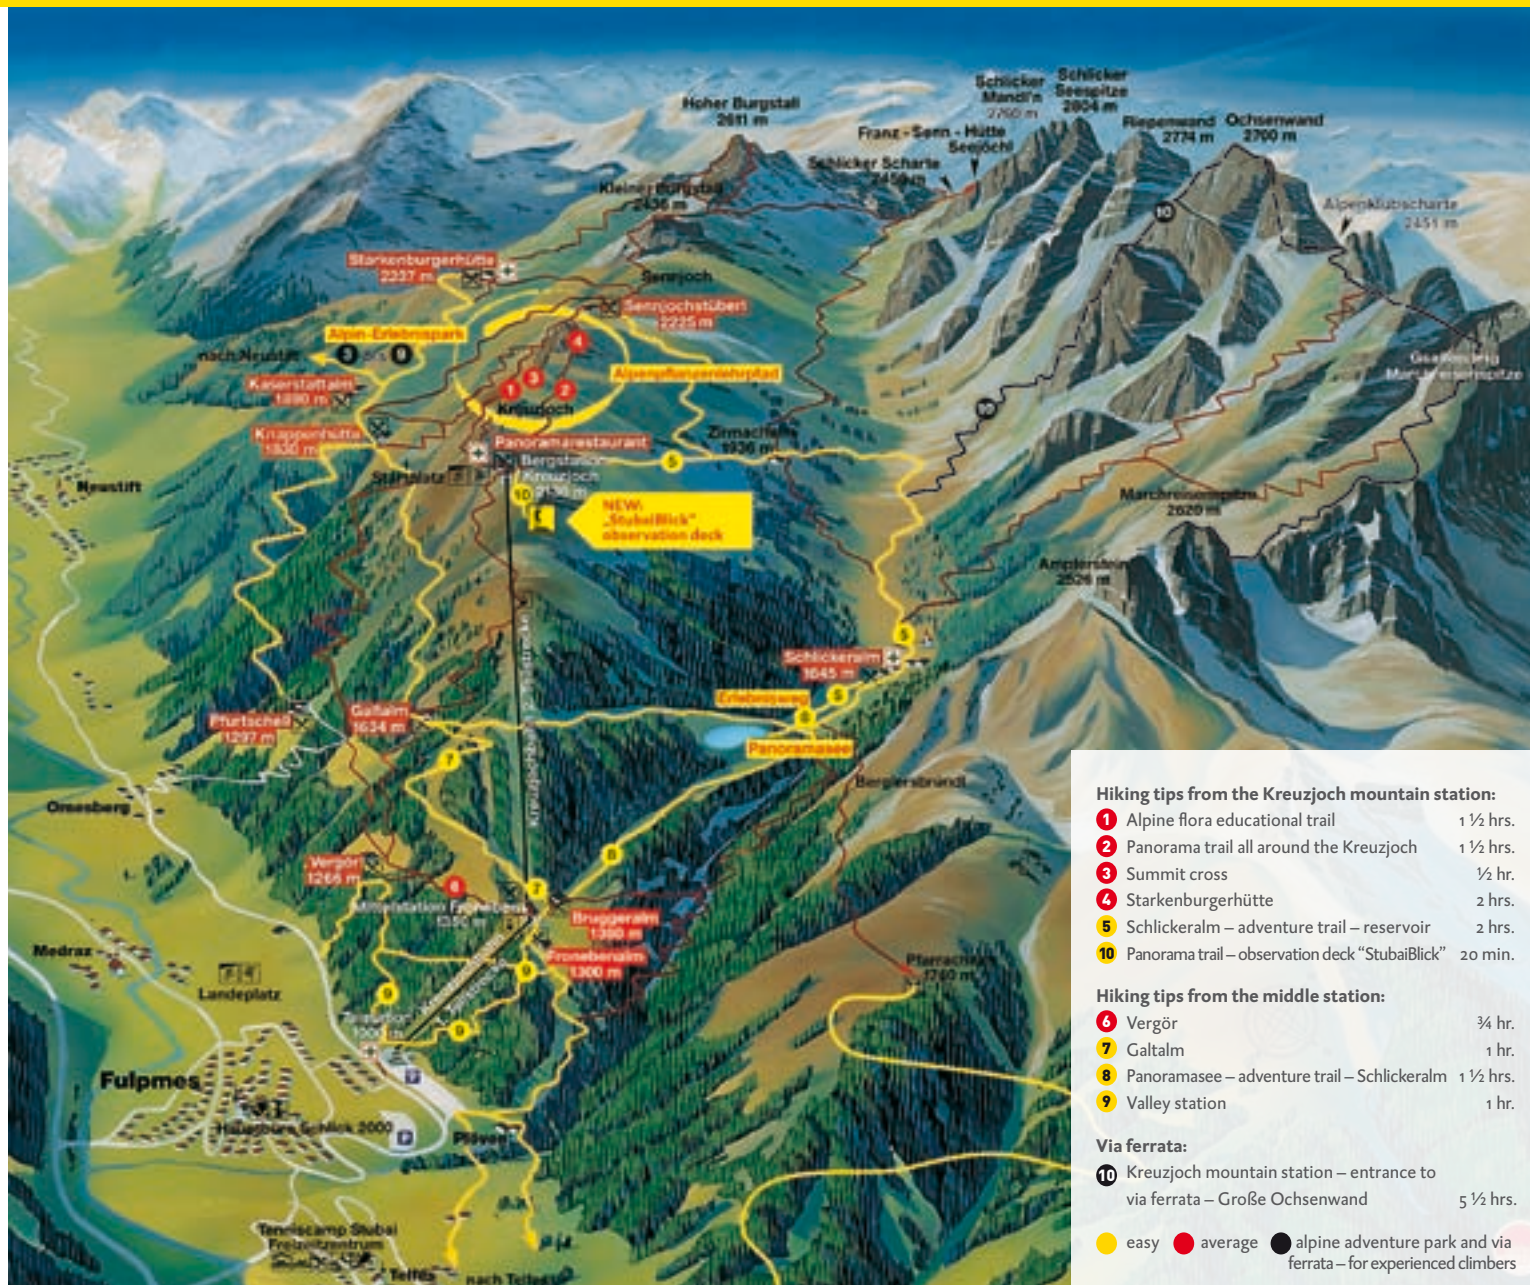

...soar to new heights on the gondola, enjoy the incredible view of the Kalkkögel, also known as the North Tyrolean Dolomites, and far down into the valley. Relax in the sun in a tranquil setting or embark on an adventure in the mountains. Whether walking up our new short panorama trail to the "StubaiBlick" observation deck, admiring the diverse flora in our mountains, stopping at the crystal-clear Panoramasee or exploring the adventure trail with fun stations and relaxing Kneipp and barefoot areas – everyone is sure to find a well-deserved balance here.

PANORAMASEE ... let yourself go ...

...surrounded by majestic mountains and green fir trees lies our PANORAMASEE in a beautiful setting with gentle banks for Kneipp therapy, lounging about and simply relaxing. This relaxation oasis in summer provides for snow-covered ski trails in winter.

ADVENTURE TRAIL ... let yourself be thrilled ...

...with game stations and barefoot paths right through the adventure trail (approx. 1 km) for big and small children. Consciously experiencing and being in touch with nature is the motto here. Children will have lots of fun in the crawling tunnel, on the rope slide and on the rope bridge at the giant playground near the Schlickeralm, etc. while adults can enjoy some Kneipp therapy in the fresh alpine water.

ALPINE FLORA EDUCATION TRAIL ... let yourself be enchanted...

...amidst the magnificently blooming flora which ranges from pioneer plants in stony cirques, colorful meadow flowers and alpine herbs to rare plants in the mountains. This extraordinarily fascinating journey of discovery starting from the Kreuzjoch mountain station lasts about 1 1/4 hours. From June 30 – Sept. 1, 2009 a free tour of the alpine flora education trail is offered every Tuesday. Meeting point at 9 am at the valley station. Use the trail at your own risk. Additional hiking tips can be found on page 15 and on the hiking maps available at our ticket windows.

ALPINE ADVENTURE PARK ... let yourself be challenged ... (see page 14/15 panorama map – Alpine Adventure Park 3 - 9)

...in the climbing garden with practice fixed vie ferrate, panorama via ferrata, rappelling cliff and rope slides from summit to summit. You need to have suitable equipment, a good head for heights and surefootedness. Children may not climb unsupervised. A mountain guide is on hand to assist novices. The rope slides may only be used with a mountain guide.
