Great skiing and riding begin with great snow. With a peak elevation of 4,268 feet, here at Timberline we get more than our share, an average of over 150-200 inches each season. When nature leaves off, our snowmakers take over, covering our lengthy terrain with enough snow to ensure the best possible snowsport conditions -TILL APRIL!

With a vertical rise of 1,000 feet, you will enjoy skiing our scenic 2 mile long Salamander Trail overlooking the valley. Our 37 slopes and trails are evenly divided among easiest, intermediate, and expert runs. Skiers and snowboarders of all abilities will enjoy exploring Timberline's trails and terrain parks. Timberline Four Seasons Resort is a partner with the Monongahela National Forest.
